The International Day of Charity was established with the objective of sensitizing and mobilizing people, NGOs, and stakeholders all around the world to help others through volunteer and philanthropic activities.

The day was officially declared by the United Nations in 2012 and is part of their 2030 Agenda on Sustainable Development, which recognises the barriers that poverty places on international development. By encouraging social responsibility on 5th September, we will better understand the needs of the most vulnerable to help the international community move forward.

Objectives of the programme:

- To understand the primary need of the poor.
- To give the helping hands to needy.
