The department of History organized guest lecturer on United Nations: Its achievements to BA students on 08.7.2022 by Sri Narasimha Rao HOD History AG&SG Siddhartha Degree college, Vuyyuru. He delivered lecture and created awareness on United Nations.

Objectives

- ❖ To understand Its activities include maintaining international peace and security, protecting human rights
- ❖ To analyse the delivering humanitarian aid, promoting sustainable development and upholding international law.

History of UN Foundation

The United Nations (UN) is an international organization founded in 1945 after the second World War. It is currently having of 193 countries as Members in it. Its mission and work guided by the purposes and principles contained in its founding Charter and implemented by its various organs and specialised agencies. In 1899, the International Peace Conference was held in The Hague to elaborate instruments for settling crises peacefully, preventing wars and codifying rules of warfare. It adopted the Convention for the Pacific Settlement of International Disputes and established the Permanent Court of Arbitration, which began work in 1902. This court was the forerunner of UN International Court of Justice. The forerunner of the United Nations was the League of Nations, an organization conceived in circumstances of the First World War, and established in 1919 under the Treaty of Versailles "to promote international cooperation and to achieve peace and security." The International Labour Organization (ILO) was also created in 1919 under the Treaty of Versailles as an affiliated agency of the League. The name "United Nations", coined by United States President Franklin D. Roosevelt. A document called The Declaration by United Nations was signed in 1942 by 26 nations, pledging their Governments to continue fighting together against the Axis Powers (Rome-Berlin-Tokyo Axis) and bound them against making a separate peace. United Nations Conference .
