The Department of Political Science at GDC Avanigadda marked the Azadi Ka Amrith Mahotsav with a grand celebration on August 13, 2022. The event, dedicated to commemorating 75 years of India's independence. The celebration witnessed active participation from college staff, students, and the dedicated staff from the local post office.

Chief Guest Head Post Master Rama Lingswara rao delivered an insightful address, drawing connections between the role of postal services in disseminating information during the independence movement and the continued relevance of such services in fostering communication and connectivity in the present day.

A highlight of the event was the interaction between college participants and the post office staff. This exchange of ideas and experiences served to bridge the generational gap, fostering a sense of continuity and shared heritage.

The celebration concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Chief Guest Post Master Rama Lingswara rao, college staff, students, and the post office staff for their valuable contributions
